Józef Tischner Fellowship

2010 — Call for Applications

Objective

Józef Tischner (1931–2000), one of the most eminent contemporary Polish philosophers and the first chaplain of Solidarność, was founding president of the IWM. In his memory, the Józef Tischner Fellowship has been granted to junior researchers from Poland and young Polish-American scholars since 2003. The fellowship is open to all academic disciplines in the Humanities and Social Sciences; research proposals related to one of the IWM's main fields are strongly encouraged.

Conditions

The Józef Tischner Fellow will be invited to spend a six-month term from July to December 2010 at the IWM to pursue her/his research project while working in residence. The fellow will receive a stipend in the amount of EUR 9,000 to cover accommodation, living expenses, travel, health insurance and incidentals during the stay at the Institute. Furthermore, the IWM will provide an office, access to the internet, in-house research facilities and other relevant sources in Vienna.

Józef Tischner Fellows are eligible for a grant under the HOMING Program of the Foundation for Polish Science (for details: www.fnp.org.pl).

Eligibility

Candidates for the Józef Tischner Fellowship

- must be Polish citizens or permanently reside in Poland; the fellowship is also open to Polish-American scholars
- must currently pursue their doctoral degree or have recently obtained a Ph.D.
- must not be older than 35 years

The IWM and the Foundation for Polish Science (www.fnp.org.pl) have established a cooperation agreement in support of young researchers returning to Poland.

The Institute for Human Sciences (Institut für die Wissenschaften vom Menschen, IWM) is an intellectually and politically independent institute for advanced study in the Humanities and Social Sciences. Since its foundation in 1982, its purpose has been to bring together academics and intellectuals from Eastern and Western Europe. During each year the IWM invites about forty researchers for fellowships at the institute.
